

Children & Family Services | Behavioral Health | Education | Advocacy

Children & Family Services | Behavioral Health | Education | Advocacy

For Information:

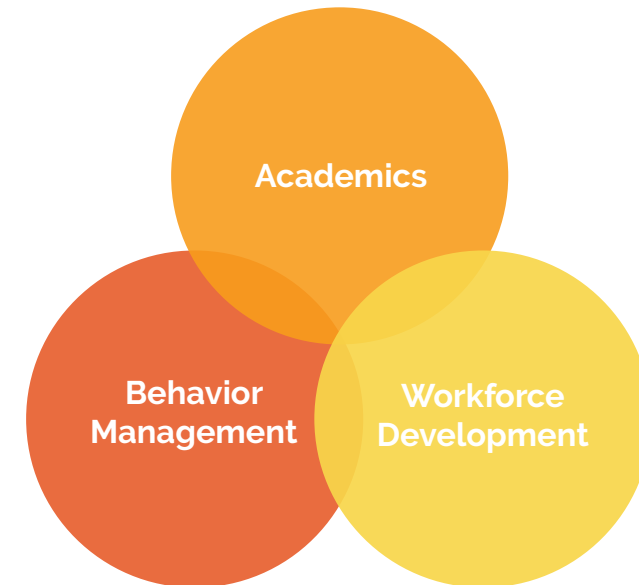

Dawn A. Gillette, M.Ed. • Charlottesville Head of School
434.220.7198 • dgillette@ElkHill.org
1819 Emmet Street N. • Charlottesville • Virginia 22901
www.ElkHill.org

Elk Hill Charlottesville School

Elk Hill's Integrated Approach to Education

Elk Hill's Educational Mission

Elk Hill enables children and families to transform overwhelming challenges into successful futures.

Core Values

We build our programs around five core values:

Respect • Responsibility • Hard Work

Lifelong Learning • Courage

Serving coed students ages 5-21 with OHI, SLD, ED & ASD

Behavior Management	Academics	Workforce Development
Positive Behavior Supports Trauma Informed Training Behavior Support Plans Therapeutic Day Treatment MANDT System of Interventions Social Skills Training Low Student/Staff Ratios	Differentiated Instruction STEM Program PE/Health Music/Art Opportunities Reading Intervention On-line Classes	Career Development Classes Include: • Resume writing • Portfolio of Work • Certification Opportunities • Interview Skills • Social Skills On-campus Jobs Partnership with DARS